COMMENTS:

This bill, as amended September 7, 1999, provides a complaint resolution process for custodial and non-custodial parents for actions taken or failure to take actions by a local child support agency or the Franchise Tax Board (FTB). This bill would require the FTB to cooperate with the local child support agency in resolving any complaints concerning the action or inaction of the FTB on a child support delinquency referred to the FTB for accounts receivable management (such referral would be a requirement under AB 196 and as amended by SB 542, which were chaptered September 27, 1999, Chapter 478 and Chapter 480, respectively). The FTB would be required to ensure that a representative attend any complaint resolution hearing, if deemed necessary by the local child support agency. The FTB and local child support agency would be required to comply with, and execute, decisions rendered by the director of the Department of Child Support Services. FTB staff does not expect this bill to significantly affect the FTB child support accounts receivable management program under AB 196 and SB 542; therefore, no analysis is required.

FTB was initially named in this bill as amended September 3, 1999. These amendments added the above complaint resolution process conditional on the enactment of AB 196 or SB 542.
